

Shabeeh Rahat

Assistant Professor, CEPT Writing Center

Research Area Keywords:

Language

Literature

Hindi, Urdu

Translation

Shabeeh Rahat is Assistant Professor at Writing Center, CEPT University, India. She has a doctorate in English Literature and specializes in Postcolonial Studies with reference to India. Her research interests lie in studying disadvantaged groups of South Asia through literatures across English, Hindi and Urdu. Her translation pieces of Premchand's nonfiction prose and other academic work have been published as chapters, articles and proceedings. She received the Professional Development Grant by the Modern Language Association (MLA) in 2023, She is a member of reputed organizations like Modern Language Association, European Association for South Asian Studies, American Comparative Literature Association, Comparative Literature Association of India, and COST network.

<https://cept.ac.in/faculty/shabeeh-rahata>