

Tamsin Greaves

PGR researcher Arts & Humanities, NTU

Community Projects Officer, Mansfield Museum

Tamsin Greaves is a final year post-graduate researcher in Arts & Humanities at Nottingham Trent University, her thesis, 'Art Cares?', explores how creative workshops in museum spaces can improve the wellbeing of women living with the aftermath of gender-based abuse. Tamsin runs the Art Power social care project at Mansfield Museum which was shortlisted for a Museums Change Lives Award by the Museums Association in 2023. She completed an MA Museum and Heritage Development at Nottingham Trent University (NTU) in 2021, winning the outstanding contribution award.

Tamsin coordinates the Researchers' Welfare Network at NTU providing support for those undertaking sensitive research incurring emotional labour.

<https://www.mansfield.gov.uk/museum/homepage/21/art-power>

Research Area Keywords:

Museums, Creativity,
Community, Heritage, Trauma
Recovery, Co-production,
Creative Methods